On behalf of the Federal Asian Pacific American Council (FAPAC), I would like to invite you to attend FAPAC's 24th Annual National Leadership Training Conference scheduled from May 11-15, 2009, at the Hyatt Regency Houston, 1200 Louisiana Street, Houston, Texas 77002.

The theme for this year's conference is "Leadership to Meet the Challenges of a Changing World." The theme is appropriate and timely for the current climate of rapid change with global impact and the conference will offer workshops and presentations on leadership, communication, and other skills enhancement that will be excellent. In addition, the conference will have exhibits from many agencies affording an excellent opportunity to explore professional interests.

Executive Secretary
Pushparajan Arokiaswamy, CGFM
Department of Veterans Affairs
(202) 273-7503

FAPAC continues to offer a great opportunity for professional and personal development for Asian Pacific American professionals through workshops and plenary sessions. The conference will also feature its extremely popular Congressional Seminar, and also presentations by state and local government officials, allowing attendees the opportunity to interact with elected officials and their key staffers.

Treasurer
Mirza P. Baig
Environmental Protection Agency
(202) 564-7288
Baig.mirza@epa.gov

We will also feature a one-day Career Forum for high school and college students interested in a military or civilian career in the Federal government. Students can register free for the Career Forum.

Auditor
