To Attendees and Stakeholders:

The Federal Asian Pacific American Council's (FAPAC) 29th Annual National Leadership Training Program will be held on May 5-9, 2014, at the Sheraton Charlotte Hotel, 555 South McDowell Street, Charlotte, North Carolina. This training is held to coincide with the observance of Asian Pacific Heritage Month. The theme this year is “Diverse Leadership + Expanding Opportunity: An American Imperative”. We welcome your participation and support.

The training program will provide workshops by professional presenters in the area of Strategic Leadership; Communication; Science & Technology for Tomorrow; Supervisory/Management Essentials; and EEO and Diversity. In addition, there will be special presentations for students and veterans (who will attend to learn about job opportunities in the federal agencies). This segment is included to promote the President's directive to hire our returning veterans wherever possible.

FAPAC is a non-profit, non-partisan organization representing the interests of over 163,000 Asian Pacific American employees in the federal government and the District of Columbia. The training program is approved by the Office of Personnel Management as appropriate for federal support and attendance. It will be the largest gathering of Asian American and Pacific Islander employees and managers in the Mid-Atlantic.

You can also welcome as a sponsor/an exhibitor for this training program. We look forward to your participation and thank you for your support of FAPAC's mission to develop competent and future diverse leaders.

For further information please visit our website at www.fapac.org or contact M. Farook Sait, Conference Chair, at 202.276.5529 or fapac2014@verizon.net

Sincerely,

Kin Wong
