

JOSEPH LAVILLE

Joseph LaVille is the Regional Director (Acting), Counterintelligence (CI), Mid-Atlantic Region, Defense CI and Security Agency (DCSA).

Mr. LaVille hails from the beautiful island of Guam and is married to his lovely wife, Violet, who is also from Guam. They have two sons, who are both proudly serving on active duty in the Air Force. After graduating from high school on Guam, he was one of two Guamanians selected to attend the U.S. Air Force Academy, Colorado.

He is an Air Force veteran with over 20 years of service, retiring at the rank of Lieutenant Colonel and as a Special Agent with the Air Force Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI). He has commanded three AFOSI field units and served twice at the Pentagon in the offices of the Secretary of the Air Force (AF) and AF Chief of Staff. Mr. LaVille has also served on the U.S. Central Command staff and was assigned to the U.S. Embassy-Kuwait. He currently leads and manages the day-to-day operations and counterintelligence activities in the DCSA Mid-Atlantic Region.

Upon joining FAPAC he immediately took on a leadership role as the Sponsorship Chair. He led his team through the challenges of obtaining sponsors for FAPAC's first virtual National Leadership Training Program (NLTP). After great success, he again led his team in obtaining NLTP sponsors for a second year in a row.

Mr. LaVille received an Associate of Arts degree in Korean studies, Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science, Master of Science degree in National Security Affairs, and a Master of Science degree in Strategic Intelligence.
