

Ngoc-Han "Mary Jo" Marlow is a Management and Program Analyst with the FBI where her primary duties include financial management of her section's budget and serving as the Contracting Officer's Representative for her section's multiple contracts. She currently serves as President of the FAPAC-FBI chapter, has served as the Committee Co-Chair for the NLTP Sponsorship Committee two times, assists with the Community Outreach Committee, and coordinated the Student Program Information Session during the 2022

NLTP. Outside of her FAPAC duties, she is an Executive Council Representative for DOJ's Pan Asia Board, the Special Emphasis Coordinator for her FBI division's AANHPI Program, and a prior Chair of the FBI's Asian Pacific American Advisory Committee (one of the FBI's Diversity Advisory Committees). She also has served as a mentor for the FBI's Cross-Cultural Mentorship Program and currently serves as a mentor for her FBI division's Mentoring Program. She is an active volunteer and member of her church where she teaches 1st-6th graders and is also responsible for the financial reporting of all online donations. She was born in Saigon, Vietnam and is extremely blessed to have wonderful parents who made enormous sacrifices to be able to immigrate and bring their family to the U.S. in 1975. Above all else though, her greatest blessing and most important job is her role as Mom to two amazing kids!
