

Barbara Holston is currently the Acting Chief of Staff at Defense Counterintelligence & Security Agency, Counterintelligence and Insider Threat Directorate at Quantico, VA. She leads the directorate in planning, developing, execution, and oversees requirements, as well as building and maintaining effective and collaborative working relations with all stakeholders. Prior to joining DCSA, Barbara has held financial management positions with the US Army Intelligence and Security Command, 88th Comptroller Squadron, 445th Airlift Wing, and Northrup Grumman. She recently served as the Conference Chair for FAPAC's 2022 37th National Leadership Training Program and is currently the Executive Secretary. She is a proud military spouse, married to a US Army soldier, with 2 boys, and resides in Northern Virginia.