

“Jasmeer "Jaz" Basi started her career at the U.S. Department of Labor as a Wage and Hour Investigator. In her last position, she served as Commissioner with Federal Mediation and Conciliation service and helped parties negotiate labor disputes, and she currently works as the USDA Food and Nutrition Services. Jasmeer specializes in managing Labor and Employment relations issues and is a strong believer in the power of positive thinking in the workplace.

She regularly develops internal training guides to discuss trending subjects. Jasmeer received her B.A. from the U.C. Davis in Political Science and has a M.A. from University of San Francisco in Organization & Leadership. Also passionate about learning and facilitation, Jasmeer possesses a doctorate from Gwynedd Mercy University in Higher Education.

Jasmeer strongly believes in strengthening bonds of community through acts of service. With this spirit, she was involved in starting the first FAPAC NORCAL chapter, and subsequently served as its Secretary/President. She has also served in FAPAC as a lifelong member and hopes to give back to the organization through the role of Regional Director. It will be an honor to be a steward of such an important organization.
